TO HOLD INDOOR MEET AT ARMORY

Interesting Sporting Event in Richmond This Week Attracting Much Attention.

PROGRAM OF THE EVENTS

Junior Howitzers and Blues to Have Relay Race—Other Matches.

The Events.

The indoor track meet to be held in the Seventeenth Regiment Armory on Thursday night will be the most important sporting event of the week, and will serve again to emphasize the great and growing need for a park or arena where the athletic-minded youth of Richmond may compete at their will in the games now becoming daily more popular here.

Several associations have been formed in Richmond during the last few months—Christ Church Association, the Virginia Volunteer Athletic Association and the Covenanters' Association—all made up of young boys of athletic ideas and ambition. All of them are supported through private subscription; the city gives them and allows them nothing. In many other places the city fathers realize that their sons must one day become the fathers and voters, and they have set aside some appropriation which will give their youth the chance to develop themselves in the athletic as well as in the processes of the mind. "Mens sana in corpore sano." In Richmond it is different; the boys help themselves as far as they can, but they are not so restrained upon them, save that they must keep off the grass and not skid on their roller skates around the public buildings.
